

Register Today!

You are cordially invited to attend our

Teaching American History Conference!

All teachers of American history are invited to join us for a full day of learning. Come and reconnect with your colleagues, receive classroom-ready lessons and strategies, and learn more about program opportunities.

This conference has been designed for 5th, 8th, and 11th grade teachers, however, elementary teachers, administrators, community members and history enthusiasts are welcome to register and attend!

Getting to the "Core" of History Instruction

Saturday, February 25, 2012 ★

8:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

California State University, San Marcos
Markstein Hall

Mark your calendars for this special event!

- ★ Network with university faculty & historians
- ★ Acquire new, STANDARDS-BASED lessons & resources
- ★ Observe effective strategies for teaching history
- ★ Reconnect with your TAH & CW Fellows
- ★ Learn about new professional development opportunities

This historical event is generously funded by the U.S. Department of Education and includes free materials, light breakfast and lunch. Register for this FREE event at:

<http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1014-49340>

Questions?

Contact Laurie Mosier at lmosier@sdcoe.net or (858) 292-3820, or Tracie Audifferen at taudifferen@sdcoe.net or (858) 292-3528.

